Admiral Stansfield Turner
Director of Central Intelligence

Dear Admiral Turner,

I am writing to thank you for your willing support during my attempt at a White House Fellowship this year.

I recently received the Commission's letter with their regrets, but which suggested that I consider reapplying when my qualifications are stronger. I am undecided about a future application, but I must admit the idea still intrigues me.

Now, Rita and I are looking toward our next assignment. We will be leaving Naples in June when I will be reassigned as the Senior Instructor at the United States Air Force Security Service Officer Course at Goodfellow Air Force Base, Texas. I am excited about the job since I will have a chance to influence the direction and content of instruction for future collection managers and Air Force Special Security Officers around the world. Other goings-on in San Angelo, Texas ("the wool capital of the world") may be a little less dramatic, however.

We will be leaving Naples having met and worked with many good people and capable professionals. I am grateful to have had the opportunity to serve you and your staff while you were here, and I would welcome the pleasure of doing so again.

Sir, please once more accept my thanks for your assistance and support, and our best wishes to you and your family. I remain

Very Respectfully,

WILLIAM T. KIRK, JR
Captain, USAF
